

We hear a lot these days about promoting American democracy, here and around the world. Democracy cannot possibly be well served by a media which has so much power and control that nobody else's views are seriously heard - only those that fit its own narrow political and financial interest. This is a real danger for America. Please stand against media conglomeration. Enough damage has been done already due to deregulation, both to the industry and to the country. stop it now. Thank you.